

POSITION TITLE & LOCATION:

4-H Animal Sciences Student Intern
Nationwide & Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center

DATES: March 5, 2018 – May 4, 2018 (varies depending on student's schedule, not to exceed 28 hours per week)
May 7, 2018 - August 17, 2018 (38 hours per week, 8am-5pm; times will vary depending on week and project)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday, December 29, 2017 or Until Filled

WAGES: Starting at $9.00 per hour and based on experience

SUPERVISOR'S INFORMATION:

Dustin Homan
Program Manager, 4-H Special Projects
419 Nationwide & Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center
2201 Fred Taylor Drive
Columbus, OH 43210
Phone: 614.247.8305 Fax: 614.292.5937
Email: homan.64@osu.edu Website: www.ohio4h.org

SUMMARY OF DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Assist in the development and preparation of Skillathon, Judging Contest, and Quiz Bowl materials for the 2018 Ohio State Fair (OSF) Animal Science Youth Events
2. Assist with set-up, registration, implementation, scoring, and awards of the above youth events (must be available everyday during OSF events July 19 – August 6, 2018)
3. Assist in preparation of the 2018 OSF Report of Results for Animal Sciences Events

KNOWLEDGE & EXPERIENCE INTERN SHOULD GAIN:

1. The process of developing and preparing educational materials for youth development
2. Knowledge about livestock, performance, and companion animal species
3. Communication skills (verbal and written) to effectively interact with OSU faculty and staff, adult volunteers, OSF Department Directors, and youth clientele

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Knowledge of animal skillathons and experience taking animal projects are preferred
2. First or second-year student is preferred, with an interest in potentially continuing in this position for a second year as lead intern
3. Ability to manage simultaneous projects in order to meet deadlines
4. Scrupulous and attentive to details
5. Self-motivated
6. Ability to use Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Adobe Photoshop and other Office applications

TO APPLY:

Send current resume and cover letter by deadline to Dustin Homan at homan.64@osu.edu

