

Feed Mill Manager- NW Ohio

Pettisville Grain Company (PGC) is a family-owned company Established in 1903 PGC provides excellence in livestock feed manufacturing and supplies top quality feed brands to give animals the best nutrition. PGC's core values include service, integrity, and community.

General Summary:

The Feed Mill Manager oversees feed quality, feed production, and customer support of Pettisville Grain Company's feed mill facilities in Pettisville, West Unity, and Delta, Ohio.

Critical Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provide customized nutrition support and feedback to end users
- Collaborate with head of nutrition to use formulation software and technology
- Communicate with producers and external nutritionists regarding feed ration customization and order execution.
- Set pricing and track margins of feed business
- Ongoing financial reporting
- Order ingredients through wholesale suppliers and vendors
  - Manage inventory
  - Maintain efficient and timely flow of all raw materials
  - Oversee ingredient bin utilization
- Coordinate schedule for drivers and feed production associates
- Lead safety improvement initiatives and create a safety-based culture
- Ensure ongoing compliance with all regulatory agencies including, FDA, OSHA, EPA, FSMA and other local and regional agencies

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities:

- Strong interpersonal skills: communication, customer interaction, and problem solving
- Strong operations skills: record keeping, purchasing, inventory maintenance
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Basic knowledge of the mechanical workings of a feed mill
- Sales experience preferred but not required
- Willingness to tackle new projects and look at change as an opportunity to take on more responsibility
- Self-motivated with organizational skills in inventory, grain handling, maintenance schedule, production and record keeping

Education & Experience: Bachelor's degree preferred, 2-5 years of relevant experience in the field.